During the past fiscal year St. John's received $940.00 from twelve donors, memorializing: Mildred Babirak, Liza Guarnieri and Arlene Soldat.

These funds were designated by the donors or by the families of those honored for the comfort dog ($40) and for use where most needed by the church or school ($900.00).

The financial report for the year includes:

Fund balance 6/30/2024	$8,166.17
Memorials received		940.00
Transferred to St. John's accounts		2987.00
Fund balance 6/30/2025	$6,119.17

The year end balance of $6,119.17 has been designated for the Narthex Fund ($1,536.00), Comfort Dog ($20.00) and an account for use where most needed by the church and school ($4,563.17).

We anticipate receiving the Rev. Haberkost Endowment Fund annual report from Concordia Seminary for the year ending 6/30/2025 in October and it will be posted on the church website.

We thank all who memorialized loved ones this past year with gifts for God's Kingdom. Please contact me or members of the Memorial and Gifts Committee if you have questions or suggestions.
